- 1. Foreign currency transactions: a charge of 3% will be added to all RBC Wealth Management Visa Gold debit card transactions that require currency conversion.
- 2. Cheque collection: cheque collection refers to the process which takes place when a cheque is paid in that is drawn on a bank outside the country of the currency in which the cheque is denominated - for example, a Sterling cheque drawn on a US bank. The cheque is then sent to the bank from which it originated, who in turn make an electronic payment to the recipient's bank to settle the transaction. However, this process can take weeks and a charge will typically be incurred, meaning that the ultimate credit received by the payee differs slightly from the original amount on the cheque. Please contact your Relationship Manager if you require further clarification around this issue.
- 3. Collection of cheques denominated in Euros: due to very low transactional volume, Euro denominated cheques paid into the Bank for collection are usually sent by courier individually, meaning that the cost would be passed on to the payee. For this reason we recommend using electronic transfer where possible. For further clarification, please contact your usual Relationship Manager.
- 4. Foreign exchange: The margin charged on foreign exchange transactions will vary according to the size of the transaction. Please contact your usual Relationship Manager for further details.
- 5. Relationship management charge: where the total relationship value with RBC Wealth Management is under £50,000 or currency equivalent, a relationship management charge will be applied, as detailed overleaf. This charge will be calculated monthly but applied quarterly on the first working day of April, July, October and January. It will apply for any month in which the total relationship value falls below £50,000 or equivalent.
For example, if a relationship value is above £50,000 throughout April and May, but falls below this value at any stage during June, a total charge of £25 for the quarter will be applied on the first working day of July. For further information, please contact your Relationship Manager.
- 6. Returned mail: where mail is returned from a client's last known address and the Bank is therefore forced to hold all all mail, a charge as detailed overleaf will commence from the date that mail is first returned and will be applied quarterly thereafter until a valid new address is provided.

Other services: details of applicable charges will be advised to clients prior to any such services being provided.

Transaction charges in currencies other than shown above will be levied at the currency equivalent of the Sterling charge shown above.

We reserve the right to amend charges at our discretion. If we increase a charge for a basic account service we will give you at least 30 days notice of the increase.

*Additionally, we reserve the right to recover charges and commissions levied by our agents or third party correspondent banks in connection with the transmission of funds. These may include, but are not restricted to, long distance telephone calls, postage, courier/messenger services, legal fees and insurance.

 This charge will be calculated at the time of breaking either the Fixed Term Deposit or Expatriate Choice accounts.
